Alpaca

MALBEC

The Alpaca is a domesticated animal of the Camelidae family and a native of the Andes. This creature is highly valued for its luxury wool, which today is exported around the world. This deeply coloured Alpaca Malbec is beautifully fragrant, with intense black fruit aromas intermingled with fresh floral notes. Flavours of blueberry and juicy black cherries dominate on the palate, with accents of exotic spices in a fruity approachable style.

Drink Responsibly
 The UK Chief Medical Officers recommend adults do not regularly drink more than 14 units per week.
