DESERT VALLEY
ELQUI VALLEY

SYRAH

The Elqui Valley is one of Chile's most extreme winemaking regions. Bordering the world's most arid desert, it is a place of ethereal quality, renowned for its striking starry skies. This alluring Syrah captures the mystique of its home, grown in a cool climate in soils composed of gravel deposits from the Elqui River. The sea fog that passes through the river basin each morning provides the vineyard with moisture until midday, gifting the wine exceptional structure and nuanced expressions.
