Don Eugenio

SPECIAL SELECTION

MALBEC

2006

Don Eugenio Bustos arrived to Mendoza by mid XIXth century, and founded the town that today carries his name. He was a visionary man and a pioneer in the wine industry: back then, he planted Malbec grapes, he built a water canal for irrigating the vines, and he was the owner of the biggest and modern winery in the region.

This wine of deep red violet colour is intense, fresh, fragrant and complex. Notes of ripe red fruits, blackberry, liquorice, chocolate, morello cherry and red flowers like violets. It also reminds of hazelnuts, almonds and cinnamon, due to its ageing in French oak.

Excellent attack on the palate; juicy, lively, cheerful, delicate and elegant. The fruit of the mouth recalls sweet blackberry notes, chocolate, toffee and caramel. Tannins are present, strong, long and sweet. A ripe fruit aftertaste is highlighted and it has a very good persistence.

Ideal with red meats, game birds or accompanied with spicy stews and vegetables. Fatty type fishes with mushroom and cheese sauces, or alone, with strong and creamy cheeses.

Serve at 16°-18° C
