LA CONSULTA
RESERVE
PINOT NOIR

La Consulta is the name of the region where General San Martin "consulted" indigenous chieftains about which mountain paths his army should march across the Andes during the Argentine War of Independence

Ruby red colour and delicate floral and cherry aromas with subtle vanilla and chocolate notes from the oak. Smooth on the mouth, the striking varietal character can be felt along with cherries and ripe plums. An intense and well balanced finish.

Great to match stuffed pasta, oily fish, cow, lamb and mature cheeses.
Serve at 15°-17° C.
