LA RIOJA

Each year, Jed's three young Australian winemakers travel to Argentina to produce wines that express the unique characteristics of it's epic landscape.

Jed Torrontés is grown in La Rioja high up in the Andes mountains in Argentina's North. La Rioja is the world's highest established wine region and is famous for producing the finest Torrontés.

Jed Torrontés shows all the hallmarks of Argentina's celebrated white varietal: aromas of fresh flowers, rich fruit and sublime acidity.
