VALLE DE UCO · CUYO · ARGENTINA

Eugenio Bustos arrived in the Uco Valley and planted the first Malbec vines which he had received in exchange for his finest breed of horse. In 1890, he founded La Celia winery to honor his daughter Celia. Today we continue his tradition, producing wines which reflect the true expression of this unique terroir.

La Celia Rosé, a balanced wine with aromas of cherry, forest fruits and white rose. In the mouth, it tastes of delicate raspberry, plum and cherry, inviting you to enjoy it at any time. Ideal with appetisers, white meat, seafood salads, smoked salmon, and soft cheeses. Serve at 8°C.
