RED BLEND 2018

Gran Reserva Blue Label is the iconic wine in the Gran Reserva line. The 2018 vintage is a blend including Cabernet Sauvignon (78%), which contributes aromas of red fruit, such as raspberries and cherries, which lend freshness and very fine tannins to the wine. Meanwhile, the Petit Verdot (7%) brings structure and backbone to the palate. Finally, Cabernet Franc (10%) and Syrah (5%) are the perfect complement, contributing floral notes like violets and spices, such as black and white pepper, which enhance the complexity of the wine.

This is an aromatically intense wine. The mouth is well-balanced, with velvety tannins and a long finish fostered by the vineyard’s characteristic mineral soils of volcanic origin.

RED BLEND 2019

Gran Reserva Blue Label is the iconic wine in the Gran Reserva line. The 2019 vintage is a blend of 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 13% Syrah and 12% Cabernet Franc. This blend perfectly combines the different soil types of the Tarapacá estate. Firstly, the “El Mirador” soil series (Cabernet Sauvignon) is characterized by the minerality it imprints, giving the wine a flavoursome, well-balanced palate. Secondly, the “Piedmont” soil series (Cabernet Franc) has a significant layer of gravel and results in fine, elegant wines. Finally, the “Los Cardenales” soil series (Syrah) is characterized by the presence of clay that gives the wines good body and velvety tannins. The combination of different soils produces a balanced, elegant wine with aromas of blueberries, cherries, violets and tobacco. The tannins are fine and rounded, leading to a long, velvety finish.
