TABALÍ

VIOGNIER

D.O. LIMARÍ VALLEY - WINE OF CHILE

Tabalí winery is found at the edge of the Valle del Encanto (the Enchanted valley) in the Limarí Valley, Chile's northernmost wine producing region. The region owes a great deal of its 'mystical' heritage to the ancient cultures of the Molle and the Diaguta tribes. Tabalí winery has adopted many of the cultural references as its own.

The Mediterranean climate and consistent summer temperatures make it the perfect vine - growing region. The coastal breezes blow in from the Pacific to temper the temperature inland in the shadows of the Andes.

The Tabalí Vioquier is wonderfully aromatic with citrus and floral notes. The dry, fruit driven palate is round and full flavoured. Citrus fruit, apricot and pear mingle with gentle acidity to make this a very balanced and elegant wine.

A unique wine from a unique part of the world.
