RED BLEND 2013

Gran Reserva Tarapacá Blue Label is the most prestigious of the Gran Reserva range. The 2013 blend consists of 54% CABERNET SAUVIGNON, which provides touches of cherry, blackberry and blackcurrant on the palate, with round tannins produced by the angular rock and gravel-rich soils. The vineyard which gives rise to the SYRAH (20%) is located near to the Maipo River, whose cool waters and fresh winds that are brought by the Pacific Ocean in the summer evenings, lend the wine hints of black fruit like blackberry and black cherry, floral notes such as violet and spiced touches that include white pepper, as well as a subtle bouquet of black olive. Finally, the PETIT VERDOT (16%) and CABERNET FRANC (10%), which come from the vineyards on the slopes of the main estate that are composed mainly of loamy 'gravosa' soil and high quality clay, are used to produce full-bodied, unctuous and lengthy wines with a perfect ripeness. The blend was aged for 16 months in French oak.

RED BLEND 2014

Gran Reserva Etiqueta Azul is the icon wine of the Gran Reserva range. The 2014 vintage is a Red Blend of CABERNET SAUVIGNON (65%), that provides red fruit notes such as raspberry, cherry and lend freshness to the wine. The PETIT VERDOT (14%) vineyard is set on a slope with gravel soils and high quality clay, giving for volume, unctuousness and persistence on the palate. Meanwhile, the vineyard where the SYRAH (11%) originates is located near the river, meaning that in summer afternoons fresh breezes travel from the Pacific Ocean towards the Andes mountain range, providing black fruit notes, such as black cherry and blackberry, combined with subtle black olive notes and floral aromas like violet. Finally, the CABERNET FRANC (5%) and the MALBEC (5%) complement the blend perfectly, contributing with volume and ripeness. This aromatic wine has excellent structure and balance, as well as a persistent finish as a result of the mineral volcanic soils of the vineyard.
