stablished in 1874, Viña Tarapacá is one Chile's oldest working wineries.

After five months in oak barrels, our beautifully aromatic Pinot Noir Reservado has a deep ruby colour, aromas of ripe red cherries, raspberries and plums and a rich, concentrated Summer fruits and toasted oak palate. The finish is long and well balanced, making it a versatile partner to a great variety of foods, from braised chicken, duck or veal to charcuterie, cheese or truffle-based dishes.
